

Please don't mess with Indiana's telephone privacy options. States should be allowed to keep SOME of their powers. If businesses want to communicate with existing clients, they can use the post office and increase their revenue.